Vintage: 2022

Alcohol content: 12.5%

Tasting notes: Vibrant in character, this Hunter Valley rosé is a subtle hybrid of vivacious fruity flavours, combined with an understated dryness. Bright pink and red berry fruits, with a hint of rose water aromatics combine for a perfect balance.

Serving suggestion: Perfectly balanced in acidity and sugar content, the subtle aromatics of this wine are elegant on the palate and suit the rich texture and understated flavour of beef carpaccio with an Australian twist. Serve alongside tangy quandong slices, goat's curd and a garnish of small, colourful botanical petals for a vibrant and delicious pairing.
