Homestead Pork offers a range of 100% Australian grown pork, sourced from Australian farms through a family-owned business with over 50 years' of experience.

The pigs are raised on vast expanses, enjoying clean and green environments, by farmers who support industry best practices and quality assurances. The health and welfare of every animal is of primary importance – they are ethically raised, treated and processed with care. The end result is a delicious and juicy range of pork cuts to suit any dining occasion.
