

Cheese Selection

Serving up the best of the Netherlands, Katelijn provides a selection of famous Dutch cheeses that will compliment your menu whether it's breakfast, lunch or dinner.

Gouda Cheese

This Dutch yellow cheese is the one of the most popular cheeses worldwide. Dating back hundreds of years, Gouda is one of the oldest cheeses recorded in history which is still being made today.

With a mild, sweet flavour and creamy texture, easy to cut, grate and melt, this cheese will add a new dimension to any recipe.

Edam Cheese

Between the 14th and 18th centuries, Edam was the world's most popular cheese as it ages well, travels well and does not spoil easily.

With a slightly salty and mild nutty flavour, Edam is a versatile Dutch style cheese that still maintains popularity today.
